Greetings everyone!
I hope you're all doing well! Since our final exam is coming up next week and the topics are getting a bit tough, we decided to set up an online study group to review together and help each other out.
📅 Date: February 7, 2026
⏰ Time: 7:00–8:00 PM
💻 Google Meet Link: Online Study Group – Final Exam Review
Saturday, February 7 · 7:00 – 8:00pm
Time zone: Asia/Manila
Google Meet joining info
Video call link: https://meet.google.com/nnj-pchn-feq
We'll be doing:
• A quick overview of the exam
• Discussion of hard topics
• Focus on Ivatan and Bontoc Philippine Architecture
• Sharing study tips and strategies
• Short recap and motivation before we end
This is just a chill space to learn together and feel more prepared for the exam. Hope everyone can join!
See you there!

4. Group Reflection

Our meeting was planned early, immediately after receiving the instructions for the activity. The group coordinated online to set the schedule, assign roles, and prepare materials such as the flashcards and discussion flow. Each member had a specific role: host, main speakers, participants, and note-taker, which helped ensure the session was organized and effective.

One of the main challenges we faced was time coordination. Some members had personal commitments, causing a few to join late, and the meeting time had to be adjusted by a few minutes to accommodate everyone. Despite this, the group managed the situation smoothly through clear communication and flexibility. The note-taker provided summaries in the chat box, allowing late participants to catch up without interrupting the discussion.

Through this activity, we learned that successful online collaboration requires preparation, clear communication, and adaptability. Tools like chat boxes and shared notes helped maintain organization and productivity. Overall, the experience demonstrated that with teamwork and coordination, even online meetings with minor challenges can be efficient, engaging, and productive.
